

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE SOUTHWESTERN ALASKA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 38-1924.

Fidalgo Island Packing Company.

Port Graham Cannery.

October 25, 1923.

A reservation designated as the Southwestern Alaska Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of November 3, 1922, the Fidalgo Island Packing Company, whose home office is at Seattle, Washington, is hereby authorized to operate its plant for the catching and canning of salmon for commercial purposes at Port Graham, within the Cook Inlet district of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1924, under the following conditions:

1. That the company may drive and operate five (5) traps on any of the sites occupied by them in the season of 1923, and may in addition purchase fish from three (3) independent trap owners who have permits to fish for salmon within the Cook Inlet district. Fish may also be purchased from gill-net fishermen who hold the necessary permits.

2. That the pack of red salmon shall not exceed fifteen thousand (15,000) cases and the total pack shall not exceed thirty thousand (30,000) cases,--computed upon the basis of 48 one-pound cans per case.

3. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.

4. That this permit expires December 31, 1924, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

S. B. DAVIS

Acting Secretary of Commerce.
